Minutes

1. Welcome, apologies, and changes in membership and officers during 2022/23

The Chair welcomed members and noted apologies. Minutes from the last meeting on 11th July 2022 were approved. All items below had been circulated to APPG officers and members with the agenda, in advance. Most had been discussed and agreed upon previously, at the meeting of July 2022.

Sir Peter said how pleased he was that the APPG was involved with the Project EDWARD Parliamentary Reception.

The group expressed their heartfelt condolences on the untimely demise of Jack Dromey MP. He was a keen supporter of transport safety and the APPG.

2. Election of Parliamentary Officers for the year 2022/23

No officers had stepped down or resigned and no members had put themselves forward for posts. Parliamentary officers for the Transport Safety All-Party Parliamentary Group were elected or re-elected as follows:
